Phase 6: Project Testing Phase

The testing phase verifies that the spreadsheet data is imported and transformed correctly. The imported records are checked against the original spreadsheet values. Field mappings, mandatory fields, data formats, and the resulting target records are reviewed to confirm that the transformation has completed successfully without unexpected data errors.